ORDER

13 Pending before the Court is the parties' stipulation to extend the deadline to prepare and 14 submit a discovery plan and proposed scheduling order. Docket No. 29. The parties ask the Court
15 to suspend the deadline for them to submit a proposed discovery plan until ten days after the Court's 16 resolution of two pending dispositive motions because, they submit, the outcome of those motions
17 will impact the scope of discovery. Id. at 1-2. The mere pendency of a dispositive motion does not 18 delay the parties' discovery obligations. Cf. Little v. City of Seattle, 863 F.2d 681, 685 (9th Cir.
19 1988). Moreover, the parties present no authority to support the relief they seek.

20 Accordingly, the parties' stipulation to extend the deadline to prepare and submit a discovery
21 plan and proposed scheduling order, Docket No. 29, is hereby DENIED. The parties shall submit 22 either a stipulated proposed discovery plan and scheduling order, or a renewed stipulation to suspend 23 the deadline for filing a proposed discovery plan supported by appropriate authority, no later than 24 April 17, 2017.

25 IT IS SO ORDERED.

26 DATED: April 10, 2017.
